

SPIRIT

Of Optimism Over Far East

But the Japanese Still Talk War

CZAR AND JAPANESE MINISTER WILL CONFER.

SCHEME FOR PEACE PROPOSED.

Japan Has Furnished the British Foreign Office With Maps and Surveys of Korea.

Washington, Jan. 15.—(Bulletin.)—The bureau of navigation today received the following dispatch from the commander of the U. S. S. Vicksburg: "Chemulpo, Korea, Jan. 15.—In consequence of inflammatory article published in the newspapers here inciting the people to kill foreign subjects, I have sent two officers and sixty-four men additional with one machine gun to Seoul.

(Signed) "MARSHALL." This action is in accordance with that of the other great powers, each of which has either increased their guards at the Korean capital, or has made arrangements to do so.

London, Jan. 15.—The barometer of the far eastern situation which has now dropped and again risen, today forecasts peace. A spirit of optimism has taken hold of semi-official circles and every where this morning war is ignored and reasons are given why the czar and his advisers must retreat from the position they have taken and submit to the Japanese demands.

All dispatches from the seat of trouble seem to bear out this optimistic attitude. From several sources comes the report that Russia is about to drop her pretensions regarding Korea and go still further opening ports in Manchuria.

A dispatch from Berlin this morning quotes a telegram from St. Petersburg which appears in the Cologne Gazette and which states that the Japanese minister at St. Petersburg will be received in special audience by the czar at the Tsarkoe-Solo palace today. This has given rise to the belief that the Russian autocrat is determined to arrange peace and desires to discuss ways and means with the Japanese representative.

The Manchester dispatch hears that Russia's unpreparedness is the most potent factor in the maintenance of peace. This is especially true in the matter of coal supply.

Birmingham, Eng., Jan. 15.—The Post today states that the Japanese government has supplied the British foreign office with excellent maps and surveys of Korea, parts of Manchuria, and the coast of the Yellow Sea. Inquiries in shipping quarters indicate that at least twenty British vessels will be chartered by Japan for transport work.

RUSSIA'S REPLY Is Awaited by Japan—Feeling Among Mikado's People is for War.

Tokio, Jan. 15.—All ready for whatever may happen, Japan is awaiting the reply of Russia to her last note.

PUPILS MARCHED OUT

While Dayton School House Burned—One Child Badly Injured and Principal Swooned Twice. Loss is Only $5,000

Dayton, O., Jan. 15.—Four hundred pupils marched in perfect order down the stairs and out of Allen district school today while tongues of flame shot up between the walls and broke through the side of the building. When the pupils reached the outdoor on the bottom floor they became panic-stricken and rushed through the doorway, trampling Edna Baum, a cripple student in the first grade under their feet. She was badly injured but may recover. When all the pupils were out of the building, Teresa Corcoran, the principal swooned. Physicians were called and she was resuscitated twice each time fainting again. Loss, $5,000.

That the reply will be satisfactory nobody believes and that Japan will at once take such action as is necessary to preserve her interests is the generally accepted opinion. Outside of the ministry the feeling is practically universal in favor of war. The Japanese hate the Russians with a bitterness almost inconceivable. They regard Russia as a highway robber who took Manchuria after Japan had fairly won it at the sword's point and who would take Korea, which Japan regards as fairly her own.

It is firmly believed that Japan is now in position to fight Russia with a fair chance for success and so take back her own. Since the Chinese war this has been the one idea of Japanese soldiers and they are convinced the time for action has come. There has been no little chafing over the progress of negotiations, and should, as is anticipated, the Russian reply be a refusal to grant the demands or an evasion, it is not believed the government will be able to resist the war spirit even if it has the desire, now that Japan has nothing to gain by waiting.

An evidence of the spirit which actuates the Japanese people is found in the voluntary offer of bankers, merchants and rich men generally to place at the disposal of the government all the money they can get together. In case it is needed, nearly very dollar in the empire is at the disposal of the government with which to fight Russia. Russia's answer is expected the latter part of this week or the first part of next.

NEW SCHEME For Peace Proposes Neutralization of Korea and China.

London, Jan. 15.—It is reported that a new plan is under discussion for bringing about peace in the far east and it is said to have originated in the United States. In brief it is to have the Powers, including Japan and Russia, agree upon the complete neutralization of Korea and China in practically the same way the Balkan states or Belgium, Holland and Denmark are neutralized. Whether this plan has received any official recognition or not, or whether it has been brought to the attention of Japan or Russia is not known. A well known member of the diplomatic corps, in speaking of the matter said:

"It is doubtful if either Russia or Japan would consent to such a plan. Russia, I am sure, would never consent so far as Manchuria is concerned though it is barely possible that an agreement on those lines concerning Korea might be brought about."

England is watching keenly for developments at Constantinople. Despite the official assurances given that Russia is not contemplating a violation of the agreement closing the Dardanelles to war vessels, the belief still obtains that she has just this move in contemplation, provided it can be accomplished without bringing too great a storm about her ears.

That England will put her veto on the proposition even if it means the backing up of the veto with warships, is regarded as probable. If the British government makes it plain in St. Petersburg that this is her position, the Black Sea fleet will remain bottled up. Otherwise it will go east, for Russia would, under existing conditions, have little or no difficulty in getting Turkey's consent.

The progress of the Russian and Japanese warships through the Suez canal and the Red Sea is watched with interest by naval men. It is believed here that there may be a basis of truth in the report from Tokio that a Japanese squadron will meet the two cruisers, with Japanese officers and crews, at some point in their voyage, perhaps at Aden, in which event the Russian squadron, which is following, might find itself in a bad trap in case of war. Another case of the hunted turned hunter. If the Japanese ships got out of the Red Sea they will be comparatively safe anyway, because they can outrun the Russians.

A prominent naval officer who is well acquainted with both the Russian and Japanese navies, is firmly convinced that the Japanese, man for man and ship for ship, are greatly the superiors of the Russians. He said:

"The Japanese man-of-warman is a sailor, while the crews of the Russian ships as a rule are simply soldiers sent to sea. The discipline in the Russian navy is more military than naval, and the men are lacking in that seaman-like smartness which characterizes the British and American naval sailor, and which counts for so much in a sea fight. I predict that if ever Japan and Russia meet at sea with anything like equal force, victory will remain with the Japanese."

WHEELING FIRE

Forced Editors to Jump From Second Story Window When Building Took Fire.

Wheeling, W. Va., Jan. 15.—In one of the most disastrous fires ever experienced in this city, an entire block in the heart of the city's business district was last night in one hour, reduced to ruins, entailing a loss of nearly $200,000. The fire originated in the boiler rooms of the Wheeling Daily News, and spread rapidly, entirely consuming the newspaper plant, a wholesale liquor house, owned by Shafer & Driehorst, and the extensive plant of the Locke Bros. Shoe company.

The fire spread with such rapidity that the employees of the News had no chance to escape by the stairways and the night editor, Allen Smith and his assistant, R. M. Archer, were compelled to jump from the second story window into the steels, escaping with slight injuries. A few moments afterwards the six story walls collapsed. A hot box on the engine was the cause of the fire. The proprietors of the News carried but little insurance, but the rest of the sufferers are well covered.

FOUND

In Company of a Hypnotist, Pittsburg Capitalist's Son Says He Was Abducted.

Charlotte, N. C., Jan. 15.—Elwood Bates, the young son of a Pittsburg capitalist, is in jail here, waiting for instruction as to his disposition from his father.

Young Bates disappeared from a Catholic school, which he was attending, near Pittsburg, some time ago, and since then has been vainly sought by his father. The boy was discovered last night on a stage of a theatre here by two priests. He was being used by a traveling hypnotist. The priests recognized the boy by descriptions sent out by the Pittsburg school and took charge of him.

Afterward the boy escaped from the priests, but was found by them and placed in jail. Young Bates alleges that he was taken from the school near Pittsburg by the hypnotist and forced to accompany the latter over the country, being unable to resist the man's bidding. The little fellow seems to have had no will of his own when in the presence of the hypnotist. The hypnotist denies abducting the boy, alleging he found the latter tramping and cared for him through charity.

Fourteenth Amendment.

Washington, Jan. 15.—In the case of Rogers vs. the State of Alabama, the Supreme court of the United States today sustained the right of a negro to service as a criminal juror in criminal cases. Rogers was tried for murder and negroes were not allowed to sit on the jury, for no other reason, it is alleged, than that of race and color. The Supreme court holds its decision to be the protection of equal rights under the Fourteenth amendment.

Washington, Jan. 15.—The Panama canal treaty was today ordered reported favorably to the Senate by the committee on foreign relations.

TROOPS

Will be Rushed to West Africa

To Protect White Men in Danger There.

NATIVES ARE MARCHING AGAINST FEW THOUSAND WHITES.

EXECUTION OF CHIEF NICODEMUS

Has Incited Natives of German West Africa—Von Buelow Makes a Statement

Berlin, Jan. 15.—Rebellion has broken out in German West Africa. There are 3,000 whites in the territory, including 40 Americans. Opposed to them are sixty thousand natives who are after revenge for the killing of Nicodemus, a chief, for high treason.

In the Reichstag today Count Von Buelow, imperial chancellor, made a statement regarding the gravity of the rebellion. He announced that the emperor had ordered reinforcements rushed. These troops will leave Kiel on Thursday and are due at the mouth of the Swakop river on February 8.

Bushnell's Funeral.

Springfield, O., Jan. 15.—The funeral of ex-Governor Bushnell was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Christ church. The service was conducted by Bishop Boyd Vincent. Several hundred floral tributes made a bank of bloom in the church. Gov. Herrick and staff and Senator Foraker were among those present.

He is in for a Year.

Chicago, Jan. 15.—Alderman John J. Brennan of the Eighteenth ward, sentenced to one year in the house of correction for complicity in election frauds, was put to work today tying up bundles of brooms in the shop division of the broom department. He was attired in the regular prison suit of blue and his hair and moustache had been trimmed. With Brennan 157 other men were working, both colored and white. They are what are known as "long term" men, sentenced for one year or more.

Theatre Closed.

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 15.—Mayor Fleischmann this afternoon ordered Heuck's Opera House on Vine street closed until repairs are made that will make it safe as to fire precautions. This was done as a result of the Mayor's inspection of the Cincinnati theatres last week.

Hobson's Mother Dies.

Boulder, Colo., Jan. 15.—The mother of Richmond P. Hobson died at the home of Shirley Davis Sunday, after a long illness. Her son was with her when she died and left with the remains today for Greensboro, Ala.

Heir to Big Estate.

Portland, Ore., Jan. 15.—Robert F. Hall, a manufacturing agent, who has been in business in this city for the past 26 years, has fallen heir to an estate of about 150,000 acres of coal land located in Tennessee and valued at about $3,000,000.

DONATION

Of $15,000 by Big Four Railroad Insures Erection of Monument to Purdue Wreck Victims.

Lafayette, Ind., Jan. 15.—A telegram from New York says:

"You may say to the Citizens' Executive committee of the Purdue Memorial Association that the best news I have for them before leaving for Europe is that our company will give $15,000 toward the erection of the proposed memorial gymnasium at Purdue university. Very truly yours,

"M. E. INGALLS."

The public and student body went wild over the news. The students are now celebrating the event by parading the streets, giving college yells and "nine rabs for Ingalls, nine rabs for the Big Four."

President Stone of Purdue, expressed the greatest delight over the munificent gift, and said it was in keeping with the assurance the committee received at its recent conference with President Ingalls in Cincinnati. The gift of the Big Four company assures the erection of a memorial gymnasium costing not less than $100,000, a grand tribute to the memory of the students who lost their lives in the fatal wreck at Indianapolis October 31. There are a number of private individual donors that will be announced shortly.

SIR THOMAS

Buys Horses and Pigs in America and Sells Them to English, the Latter as "Irish Bacon."

Washington, Jan. 15.—Although the United States is deficient in creating new breeds of animals, according to Secretary Wilson, who outlined the policy of the department of agriculture to the House committee on agriculture, Sir Thomas Lipton buys horses and pigs at Chicago. The horses, said the secretary, he ships to Ireland and trains them as jumpers, then sells them in lots to "Ten Stone Englishmen" as Irish jumpers. The pigs, of which he selects the thin ones he cans as "Irish bacon," which he also sells in England.

Secretary Wilson believes that the United States can furnish the mounts for the cavalry of Europe with proper study of the breeding of horses, and the department is turning its attention to this subject at the present time. The only thing the United States has ever produced in the way of new breeds, he says, is perhaps a few breeds of hens, although we have converted a running horse into a trotter.

BLAIR,

Whose Dealings in St. Louis Created a Sensation, is Dead in Eustis, Florida.

Eustis, Fla., Jan. 15.—James L. Blair of St. Louis, died here Saturday.

Mr. Blair came here about five weeks ago in search of health, and it was thought that he was improving until last week, when his condition changed so alarmingly for the worse that the physicians advised his wife should be telegraphed for, and she and her son Percy Blair arrived a short time before Mr. Blair's death.

Mr. Blair just before coming to Eustis held the position of general counsel for the St. Louis Exposition and Mrs. Blair that of President of the Board of Lady Managers, both resigning. The cause of the death in the physician's certificate is cerebral congestion. The body was embalmed and sent to St. Louis accompanied by Mrs. Blair and her son.

Many Homeless.

Bloomington, Orange River Colony, Jan. 15.—A waterspout destroyed three hotels and many houses here Sunday. The number of dead is not known. Hundreds are homeless.

Frightened to Death.

Foster, Ky., Jan. 15.—Floyd McMeane frightened his wife to death at Neville, Ohio, last night, while drunk and flourishing a revolver. He has been arrested.

Portsmouth, Eng., Jan. 15.—A serious fire is raging at the gun mounting shops in the Portsmouth Dock Yards. The fire is not yet under control. The damage will be extensive.

RATTLERS

Thawed Out and Then Returned Evil For Good by Biting the Guileless Foreigners.

Altoona, Pa., Jan. 15.—A stampede was created Sunday among a number of foreigners employed by the Kerbaugh construction company on railroad work near Galitzin by the presence of rattlesnakes in the cabin where the men were having a gay time celebrating the Sabbath.

One of the men found some snakes in a hole in the grading and carried them into the shanty and placed them under the stove. In the exaltation of consuming unlimited quantities of beer and singing songs of the Fatherland the snakes were forgotten. The heat thawed them out, however, and they began to uncoil themselves and were soon wriggling their way over the floor.

One of the men tried to stop a particularly large reptile with the result that the snake set his rattle to work and then bit the man on the leg. The other snakes coiled, and then began a scramble for safety. One man plunged through the window, suffering lacerations from broken glass. All told four foreigners were bitten by the snakes. The contractor's physician was sent from his hotel here to attend the wounded.

MINERS MAY STRIKE.

Indianapolis, Jan. 15.—Reductions in wages in the past two months resulting apparently from a preconcerted move on the part of coal operators may result in a general strike of 225,000 union miners of the country. In three states operators are making efforts for further reduction and the convention of United Mine Workers of America which holds its opening session here today is expected to take action. The cut in wages on which the delegates will base their action is regarded as the work of the association of operators. If this reduction is permitted, it is argued, further reduction will follow. The convention will be in session probably ten days, when members will enter into joint convention with the operators of the central competitive field, embracing western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois.

Taft at Honolulu

Honolulu, Jan. 15.—Former Governor Taft left here Sunday on the steamer Korea for San Francisco. He expects to reach San Francisco on Saturday night. His present intention is to take an army tug from the Korea to the Oakland mole, so as to catch the morning train for Washington, where he will assume his new duties as secretary of war. This plan of hastening across the continent is in accordance with orders cabled to him at Yokohama just previous to his departure from Japan.

Bridge Carried Away.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 15.—Three hundred feet of the Kansas Avenue wagon and street car bridge across the Kansas river was carried away by the ice today. Communications with Armourdale, Kansas, has practically stopped.

London, Jan. 15.—In court here Mrs. Walter Maud, former husband of Maj. Dan Hanna, secured a divorce today. The English courts do not recognize American divorces, and though Mrs. Maud, formerly Daisy Gordon of Cleveland, secured a divorce from Maud before marrying Dan R. Hanna, son of the Senator, it was necessary for Maud to free himself in the English courts before the divorce would be valid in England.

Senator Gallinger is the sponsor for a $5,000,000 forest reserve to be located in the White Mountains. The measure is now before Congress.

In London 1,250,000 persons live on $5 or less a week for a family of five.

BLOW TO JIMINEZ.

Commander Dillingham Cables the Navy Department that Jiminez Forces Have surrendered Morales After a Fight—Order Prevails.

Washington, Jan. 15.—The navy department today cabled the following dispatch from Commander Dillingham of the U. S. S. Detroit, dated yesterday at Puerto Plata, San Domingo:

GIRL

School Teacher is Arrested

Charged With Assault to Commit Felony

THE ROLE OF FEMALE CLAUDE DUVALL, IT IS CLAIMED,

WAS PLAYED BY MISS PILCHER

Wilbur Quirk, a Drug Clerk, Held Up, Bound, Gagged and then Rendered Unconscious.

Miller, S. D., Jan. 15.—Teaching school by day and assuming the role of a female Claude Duval by night, this, it is claimed, has been the career of Miss Hattie Pilcher. She has been arrested on warrants sworn out by several business men, charged with assault with intent to commit felony and with administering ether to Wilbur Quirk for the purpose of robbery.

Quirk is a drug clerk. He was held up by two masked persons, bound, gagged and made unconscious by the use of ether. He was found the next morning in a serious condition, tied to an iron bed, and was unable to give a description of his assailants. Miss Pilcher who was wounded on the same night, first claimed that he had been attacked in the Henshaw hotel, where she was bound and gagged. Since then she has told several conflicting stories. Other arrests in connection with the case are promised. For some time the town has been terrorized by the depredations of a masked desperado, who is said to be a woman.

GOV. HERRICK

Will Remove Himself From Office in a Short Time and Appoint His Own Successor.

Columbus, O., Jan. 15.—Governor Herrick will, within a short time, officially remove himself from office and name his successor, but not for the governorship. For divers reasons he will retain that honor. Herrick is a member of the board of trustees of the Ohio State university and failed to resign before the retirement of Governor Nash.

DRANK CARBOLIC ACID

When the Man She Loved Spurned Her Proposal of Marriage.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 15.—Mrs. May Baker, who comes from a well to do family took carbolic acid in a room in a house on St. Clair street because, she says, John Rooney, her sweetheart rejected her proposal of marriage. She is dying.

She obtained a divorce from her husband a short time ago, and ever since had been attentive to Rooney. Rooney was with her when she drank the acid, but fled when he learned what she had done. The police found his photo in her cloak, and with this as a clue they found Rooney and placed him under arrest. Rooney, it develops, is a married man, although the woman did not know this.

Perfect order prevails. Business of port will begin tomorrow at 3 o'clock. No casualties among non-combatants. No destruction of property. DETECTIVES

STILL WORKING ON HOY MURDER CASE AT THORNTONVILLE.

Suspect is Being Watched and Public is Excited—Further Facts About the Celebrated Crime.

Thornport, O., Jan. 18—Detectives Skenyon and Skully are conducting a thorough investigation of the murder of Station Agent Hoy, and are collecting evidence and testimony which tends to incriminate a certain individual whose arrest is daily expected. It has been the opinion of those persons, interested in the case, that the crime was committed by some person or persons who had an opportunity to study the daily habits of the victim, and to plan his murder accordingly. It was known that Agent Hoy took the office receipts home with him for safety every evening, and it was commonly known that he kept his money in a purse which he always carried in his hip pocket. The murderer had to thrust aside a coat and an overcoat to remove this purse which, he probably thought, contained all the money on his victim, for the company's receipts were afterwards found safe in another pocket, and no other pocket had been disturbed. If any other person had been about the place to scare the fiend away before the search was completed, it would surely have been known by this time. The watch, too, was left untouched.

The murderer first selected his weapon from a scrap pile some 300 yards away, where he knew the agent would have to come to hitch up the horse.

WALTER COON

A Former Newark Man Receives a Promotion from the B. & O. Railroad Company.

The Advocate has a special dispatch from Baltimore, Md., announcing that J. Walter Coon has just been made chief clerk to third vice president, George L. Potter of the B. & O. railroad company. Mr. Coon was formerly accountant in the B. & O. general superintendent's office in Newark. He left the city about four years ago and became assistant accountant in the general manager's office. He was later promoted and recently held the position of chief clerk to the general manager. Mr. Coon's many Newark friends will be glad to learn of his advancement in the service.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

The Farmers' Institute held Friday and Saturday at Utica was very well attended and was a gratifying success to the persons having it in charge. The talks of Mr. Williams of the experimental station, Wooster, on seed corn selection and on wheat culture, were particularly profitable, while the talks of H. B. Koontz, J. F. Keller, Prof. John Price, L. A. Ball, F. H. Ballou, J. H. Kirkpatrick, Cameron Stinson and W. W. Reynolds were all interesting and profitable. With the up to date farming of the west there is need of just such efforts to start people to put more thought into their farming, and such institutes as the one held at Utica will be an effective way of doing so.

Power is Low.

The power on the city electric line was very low for the greater part of today owing to the fact that the high tension power was being transferred to the Newark & Zanesville line. This necessitated the shutting off of the high tension power at the substation here.

So many things to do in California. There are so many things to do in California that visitors often waste a great deal of time trying to decide which to do first. But there is one way to see the state that meets with the unqualified approval of every visitor, and that is by trolley-coach. Practically every town in Southern California which caters to tourists has one or more trolley-coaches which leave the principal hotels every morning for a twenty-mile spin through the orange groves. THE REPUBLICAN CONFLICT
IN OHIO.

It will be interesting to watch the course of President Roosevelt in the impending fight between Senators Foraker and Hanna for the mastery in this State. Foraker was the first Republican of National stature to declare for Mr. Roosevelt's nomination, and is a loyal and courageous supporter of the President. Mr. Hanna has been under the ban of suspicion from the first, and even now is the cause of more anxiety at the White House than any other dozen men in the country. Hanna has declared war on Foraker, and at the same time has reiterated that he is not a candidate for the presidential nomination. Hanna vows that Foraker shall not go to the Chicago convention as one of the "big four."

That Hanna possesses the power to defeat Foraker in a contest singly between the two men is not doubted. But with Roosevelt throwing the power of his administration into the fight, the situation will be quite different. There are evidences in various portions of the State that the President proposes to back Foraker and his followers in the contest, and right in the city of Cleveland, Hanna's own home, is one of the places where the fight is to be the hottest. Both the Cleveland Congressmen, Burton and Bender, are taking a lively hand as champions of Roosevelt, and they have with them the McKissonites and other influences who propose to make a hot contest for delegates to the Republican national convention who will not only be friends of Roosevelt and Foraker, but actual enemies of Hanna. The contest promises to be a fight to a finish all over Ohio, and will be the most bitter contest the State has ever witnessed unless Hanna backs down and ceases the present war that is going on against Roosevelt and Foraker.

The point made against Major General Wood that he never was under fire but once in any real war is not necessarily conclusive. He has been under fire ever since the Spanish war ended.

The promotion of General Chaffee to be lieutenant general and chief of staff would be more agreeable if it were not known that it is only one more of the few remaining steps necessary to clear the way for "Doc" Wood, who, if he once secures the place, is young enough to hold it for many years.

When we look to Washington and see Roosevelt twisting everything in sight to advance his boom for the presidency, we cannot regard as too severe the strictures of Dr. Tocqueville, one of the most renowned authorities on Republican institutions when he said: "It is impossible to consider the ordinary course of affairs in the United States without perceiving that the desire of being re-elected is the chief aim of the President, that the whole policy of his administration and even his most indifferent measures tend to this object, and that especially as the crisis approaches his personal interest takes the place of his interest in the public good. The principle of re-election renders the corrupting influence of elective government still more extensive and pernicious. It tends to degrade the political morality of the people, substituting intrigue for patriotism."

General Debility

Day in and out there is that feeling of weakness that makes a burden of itself. Food does not strengthen. Sleep does not refresh. It is hard to do, hard to bear, what should be easy—vitality is on the ebb, and the whole system suffers. For this condition take

HANNA

Declined to Make a Public Declaration That He is Not a Candidate for the Presidency.

Chicago, Jan. 18.—A special dispatch from Washington says a new turn was given political affairs when it was made very apparent that President Roosevelt wishes Senator Hanna to make a public declaration that he is not a candidate for the presidential nomination. The Ohio man balks at the proposition. He says he does not feel called upon to reiterate his position in the matter. He argues that he has repeatedly said to interviewers and friends that he was not a candidate, and to make a public renunciation of a claim he has never put forth would smack of the ridiculous.

Furthermore he is not in favor of coming out in a public statement as favoring Roosevelt for the office. As chairman of the National Committee, he must maintain a neutral position. Arguments that this rule did not apply to this campaign, when there was only one candidate, did not change the opinion of Senator Hanna, who has his own ideas of propriety.

The President's wishes were made very plain to the Senator at a long conference with a member of the cabinet who called upon him at his hotel. While the cabinet minister received small satisfaction, he partially arranged for a conference between Senator Hanna and the President within a few days to clear up this point.

BRYAN

TO BE MADE U. S. SENATOR FROM NEBRASKA

And Succeed Mr. Dietrich, Who is Charged with Bribery—Effort to Carry Legislature.

Omaha, Neb., January 15.—The Free Silver Democrats have a scheme on foot to have Wm. Jennings Bryan succeed Charles H. Dietrich in the United States Senate. Dietrich's time expires with this year and a successor will be elected next January.

The Democrats will make every effort this fall to carry the Nebraska Legislature and land Bryan in the United States Senate. The fight, which is expected to end in favor of Bryan, will be made on two issues—railroad taxation and domination and an effort to make capital out of the Dietrich scandals.

Bryan will be a member of the Nebraska delegation in the Democratic National Convention, and will probably be chairman of the delegation. Afterwards state politics in Nebraska will be "reorganized" and every effort made to carry the State Legislature for Bryan.

Mr. Bryan was asked if the Daily Commoner, which he proposes to publish at St. Louis during the Democratic National Convention, would advocate the candidacy of any particular aspirant.

He said: "It will simply advocate Democratic principles. I have no favorites. All that I desire is that the candidate be a man whose Democracy is so well known that it will not be a subject of inquiry during the campaign."

"I simply want to do what I can to protect the party from any confidence game that may be attempted on the voters."

NO PLACE LIKE IT, Declares Bryan, on Arriving Home From His European Trip.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 15.—"Among all the places visited while away I did not find one that seemed to me as pleasant or to possess in such generous measure everything that goes to make up a satisfactory home as right here." Such was the expressed conviction of Wm. J. Bryan as he stood in his own home at Fairview. He had reference to scenic pastoral and suburban surroundings.

Mr. Bryan spent the entire day, his first after his return from his European tour at home and did not come down to the city. Mr. Bryan was urged to talk of his trip and to make some expression concerning factional politics, but he declined saying with emphasis that recent interviews in which he was reported to have discussed the question of possible Presidential candidates were purely mythical.

Mr. Bryan affirmed the announcement that he will publish a daily edition of the Commoner during the St. Louis convention.

Man Who Was Killed by Train Was Identified Sunday—Bert Jacobs Met With Tragic Death Near the Children's Home.

Bert Jacobs, a young man aged about 28 years, was found unconscious Sunday morning at 7 40 o'clock, six telegraph poles east of "The Pocket" switch, on the B. & O. near the Children's Home, by the crew of freight train 31.

He was picked up and taken to the B. & O. baggage room by Conductor Elmer Nelson, and Dr. D. M. Smith was called. It was found that his skull was crushed on the right side, and other injuries made his recovery impossible.

He died about 8 o'clock, never having given a sign of consciousness.

The deceased was a single man and leaves a mother and one brother.

JUMPED FROM TRAIN

Newark Brakeman Earl Priest Fatally Hurt But Engineer Escaped With Slight Injury—Mr. Priest Is Unconscious in a Zanesville Hospital.

As the result of a daring leap for his life Saturday afternoon, Earl Priest, of Newark, a B. & O. brakeman, is in the Good Samaritan hospital at Zanesville in a critical condition. It will be little short of miraculous if the injured railroader recovers.

The accident, which will prove fatal to Priest, and which caused Engineer George and his fireman to suffer from painful scalds and bruises, occurred at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, just as eastbound P. & O. freight train No. 22 was crossing the Salt Creek bridge, one mile this side of Bridgeville or Helmer's Switch. The fireman was R. S. Linn.

Just as the engine and train were leaving down on the bridge the crown sheet of the boiler blew off and scalding steam and water poured forth on Front Brakeman Priest, who was in the cab, Engineer George and fireman Linn.

With the letting go of the sheet, Priest became terror-stricken, and made a wild leap out of the cab window. He cleared every timber of the bridge, and alighted on the ice thirty feet below.

Engineer George reversed the throttle, and both he and his fireman jumping for their lives from opposite cab windows escaped uninjured, excepting for the burns, and several bruises and scratches received in alighting on the embankment.

After the train had stopped, the balance of the crew was notified, and a search for Priest was begun. Locating the injured brakeman would have been exceedingly difficult had not a fellow brakeman on the rear of the train, seen the excited railroader leap for his life just as the engine was in the center of the bridge.

Priest was picked up for dead. He was first on his knees, and then fell over, striking his head, with sufficient force to render him unconscious. While carrying him on the bank, Priest showed signs of life, and the P. & O. surgeon, Dr. J. G. Geyer, was notified.

After arriving upon the scene, he realized the gravity of Priest's injuries and accompanied the injured man to Zanesville in a freight car. At the Good Samaritan hospital, to which Priest was removed, Dr. Geyer and Dr. J. G. F. Holston, attended the man. They found that his left leg, between the knee and hip, had been crushed, the knee cap of that leg to be broken, and that Priest might be suffering from internal injuries. Also a severe concussion of the brain was suffered.

Mr. Priest has one brother and one sister, Esther, living in Newark and two sisters, Effie and Wealthy, residing at Columbus.

SENATOR RYAN SMOOT.

Senator Reed Smoot of Utah, has been speaking the past few days in conference with his attorneys in preparation for a great fight which will be made upon him in the United States Senate during the early months of the new year. It is known that a number of prominent senators are bound to the number from Utah business and other interests, and it is certain that this leader of the Mormon Church cannot be unseated without a hard fight.

TREATY

With Panama Will Follow Disposition of the Postoffice Investigation Resolution.

Washington, January 18.—It is the intention of the Senate to begin the week by again taking up the resolutions having in view an inquiry into the conduct of the Postoffice department, and it is the general understanding that they will be referred to the committee on postoffices after comparatively brief debate. Senator Hale, who has general charge of the resolutions, will make a brief statement concerning them, and probably will be followed by Senator Gorman. It is expected that Senator Spooner will add to his previous remarks on this subject.

Discussion of the Panama canal subject will be continued Tuesday and probably during the remainder of the week. It is the purpose of the Republican majority to insist on taking up the canal treaty as soon as it shall be reported from the committee on foreign relations. Discussion of the treaty is expected to last a month or more.

An appropriation bill a week will be the record attempted by the House until the supply measures are out of the way. The urgent deficiency measure will come from the committee about the middle of the week and will be disposed of without delay. The army bill also will be ready for action by the House before the end of the week.

It is not unlikely that the Hepburn pure food bill will be called up Tuesday.

FIT TOO WELL

LEW DOCKSTADER IS SUED FOR COST OF THE SUIT.

Tailor Thought it a Joke When Minstrel Ordered Misfit Clothes—He Got Riled.

New York, Jan. 18.—Lew Dockstadler's misfit dress suit used on the stage is well known to a large portion of the population of the United States, for the minstrel has worn it almost from the time he made his first appearance as a blackface artist. Mr. Dockstadler decided that he ought to have a new evening suit, and sent the following dimensions to his tailor:

Trousers, Waist, 67 inches; trousers, length, 40; trousers, thigh, 60; trousers, knee, 44; trousers, ankle, 30; coat length from collar to tails, 47; coats, sleeves, 32; coat, sleeves, diameter, 29.

J. P. Wessman, the tailor, studied this remarkable table of measurements aghast. Then he turned to Mr. Dockstadler's last measurements which he found quite normal. Therefore, concluding that Mr. Dockstadler was merely joking, he turned him out a regulation dress suit.

Mr. Dockstadler promptly sent it back, declaring, to the tailor's consternation, that "it fits too well."

"I'll not be made the victim of a practical joke," exclaimed the tailor. "I'll sue Mr. Dockstadler for payment for that suit."

So a suit was filed against the minstrel for $100, the value of the dress suit.

ABSURD METHODS

said the Romoc man, expatiating on the means many people take to purify their blood. Don't you realize, he continues, that most so-called blood medicines are loaded with deadly poisons? By their use you simply force one poison out and take another just as bad or worse into your system. This is like the Indian whose blanket was too short to cover his feet, so he cut off six inches from the top and sewed it onto the bottom. You accomplish just as much good by the use of deadly mineral poisons as he did. It is different with Romoc. Romoc is Nature's remedy. There is no poison in it. Not a drop of alcohol is in this solution.

LEAVES SICK BED TO PLAY COMEDY

Ann Arbor, Mich., Jan. 18.—Paul Dickey, a Michigan football player from Hyde Park, Chicago, ran away from the hospital to take the leading part in a play given Saturday night by the Michigan Comedy club.

From a bed of typhoid fever and unknown to his audience, smiling to hide his pain, Dickey carried on his body wounds of appendicitis made by the surgeon's knife.

For weeks he had been carried from his bed at night with the connivance of his nurses, and aid of students handed out of the hospital window and carried in a cab to rehearsals of the professor's tragedy. He was stranded with the theatrical company in Minnesota during his summer vacation and determined to succeed now in his chosen ambition.

"If I can't succeed and live," he said, "I'll die happy attempting it."
With a football player's indifference, Dickey greeted the news, as he went on the operating table, that death was imminent. While going under the anesthetic he sang:

A little more work for the undertaker,

Damage to College Heating Plant has Been Repaired—Denison's Orator.
College Town Notes.

Granville, O., Jan. 18.—Mr. Virgil L.
Brooks of Dayton, recently presented the Chamberlin lodge of Phi Gamma Delta of this place with a handsome wrought iron porch lamp, which is highly prized by the boys.

The heating system of Denison University, which was badly damaged by the recent severe freeze, has been repaired and the students or now comfortably installed in their rooms in the dormitories.

Mr. J. S. West, who has been chosen by the Oratorical Association of Denison as its representative in the State Oratorical contest to be held at Al-lance in February under the auspice of Mount Union College, is a natura-orator. He possesses ability that will make him a formidable rival for the representative of any Ohio college.

The Y. W. C. A. held prayer meeting in Recital Hall on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Clarice Carroll had charge of the meeting.

The little six-year-old daughter of distance south of town, had the middle finger of her left hand badly masher on Sunday afternoon by having it caught in a clothes ring.

Raymond Sprout of the Senior class who has been confined to his room with an attack of rheumatism for several days, is considerably improved at this writing.

Thomas Richards of Columbus, was in town for a short time Saturday.

William Martin of the Freshman class, who has been suffering with a sprained ankle for some days, as result of a coasting accident, is rapidly recovering from the effects of his injury.

SPEED OF RAILWAY ENGINES

To Doubled Be by Motor Invented in England and Liners to Sail Across Atlantic in Three Days--
The Motor is a Fuel Saver Too--Local and General Railway News.

Particulars have been published in London of a wonderful new motor invented by Peter Thorley, an engineer.
The invention is considered of such importance that its development may result in express railway engines running at twice their present speed at only half the cost, and of Atlantic liners crossing from Liverpool to New York in three days.

It is almost small enough to be carried in a typewriter case and so compact that everything is inclosed except the driving wheels. The new motor is capable of developing 1,500 revolutions a minute, giving horse power under a boiler pressure of 200 pounds to the square inch.

In even the best railway locomotive
the steam is admitted after the piston has moved from five to eight inches along the cylinder, thus forming a vacuum of several hundred cubic inches in extent to be filled before an ounce of power is exerted. Mr. Thorley has devised a valve which will admit a given quantity of steam at every commencement of the stroke and so nicely adjusted that the expansion force of the steam admitted is just sufficient to drive the piston at the end of its jury.

By the most modest estimate the savings in coal is 25 per cent, while the simplicity of the motor is such that the initial cost is much cheaper than existing types.

It is actually claimed that one ton of coal will produce as much power as eight tons with existing types. It can be worked just as well with compressed air as with steam.

Replace Old Engines
With the delivery of the 80 standard type engines of the Pennsylvania lines which constitute the order for 1904 the company will take out of service a number of the lighter weight machines. It is stated that the new engines are entirely for replacement, and that no extra equipment will be added as a result of this year's order for locomotives. It is the intention of the Pennsylvania to do away with all the smallest machines and those displaced by the new ones will be sent to the shops for reconstruction in accordance with the plan for the more modern type of motive power used on the Pennsylvania main lines.

Railway Earnings.
Gross earnings of all railroads in the United States reporting for December were $27,758,086, a gain of 5.4 per cent.
compared with the preceding year.
The increase indicates continued larger tonnage and is remarkable considering some of the adverse conditions.
Practically the same roads in November reported an increase of only 4 per cent over November, 1902.

James Woodcock, engineer of passenger No. 104 on the B. & O., was badly injured Thursday at Benwood while filling the sand box of his engine. He was struck by the sand pipe and was thrown to the ground. For a short time he was unconscious and was not able to take his engine back to Pittsburgh. Engineer Kirkland was given the engine and took it back to that city. Mr. Woodcock was taken to his home where he will be laid up for some time.—Zanesville Signal.

Arrested for Fighting and Each Was Fined $10 and Costs by Mayor
Crilly Monday.

Jonas Mele was accused by Orler
Broloch with stealing some money from him on Saturday evening, with the result that a fight ensued. Broloch was joined by Johan Florjarsle and they badly used up Mele, who claims he was cut by Broloch and showed a small scratch on the back.

The three are members of a colony of Hungarians who live at 152 Union

A PISTOL DUEL

In Which Officer Callan, Who Was Stabbed Last Spring By Joe Thrapp, Was Shot Through the Right Arm by Dennis Good in West Newark.

In a desperate pistol battle at close range with a murderous antagonist, Officer James Callan of the Newark police force, was painfully, although it is hoped not dangerously wounded about 11:30 o'clock Sunday night by Dennis Good, while the latter was resisting arrest on a charge of disorderly conduct.

Good was a special policeman at Idlewilds Park last summer, but since that resort closed in the fall has not done much work of any kind. He has been boarding at the home of Levi Harris, 80 Pine street, and for the past several days has manifested an ugly disposition, that would vent itself in abuse of the Harris family, and threats to do them bodily injury.

Saturday he threatened to throw Blanche Harris, aged 15, out of the house, and also to kill every member of the family.

On Sunday night his actions became so unbearable that Mrs. Harris determined to ask for police protection and with her husband and daughter, Blanche, started from the house to summon an officer, informing Good of her intentions. As they left the house Good called Harris back, and locked him in a room and refused to allow him to leave, enforcing his commands by a formidable display of force, in the nature of a revolver, which he threatened to use if Harris did not remain with him quietly.

Mrs. Harris and her daughter went on in their search for an officer, and met Officer Callan to whom they related the circumstances of Good's actions.

The officer accompanied the women to the Harris home, but he was not informed by them that Good was armed, or that he was in a desperate mood.

Callan stepped up on the side porch and tried a door, which did not yield. The house was dark but he heard a noise in the rear, so he went to the back door, which easily opened, and he found himself in the kitchen face to face with Good.

Officer Callan approached him at the time remarking "What have you been doing, Good? Why don't you let these women alone?"

The man made no reply, but backed to a stairway, and stepped up on the second step. Callan approached him and when within about five feet of the would-be murderer, Good pulled a revolver and fired point blank at the officer. The ball entered the right arm near the shoulder and striking the bone glanced and took a downward course coming out on the other side of the arm above the elbow. Good then started up stairs, and the wounded officer attempted to get his own gun. He finally managed to draw the weapon with his almost useless arm, and although suffering greatly, he fired at the man. Good never stopped but when he got to the head of the stairs, went into a room at the left, and then looking down stairs fired again at Callan. The latter returned this shot, but on account of his wounded arm his aim was not sure and Good was not injured, and with another shot at Callan he shut the door of the room.

The officer's wound was bleeding profusely and was giving him great pain. He left the Harris house and went to Dr. W. E. Wiyarch's office on Maholm street, where he telephoned to Captain Robert Bell of the police force, and then sat down to have his wound dressed.

Captain Bell hastened to the scene with Officers Swank, Glasmeier, Scott and Hager, and going to the Harris home found Good in the room where he was last seen by Callan. The officers drew their guns and expected to take Good prisoner only after a desperate battle, but he seemed to realize that to fight would only make his position worse, and he did not resist, but submitted to be taken quietly. The gun with three chambers empty, was found hid under the bed in the room where he was taken.

Good was locked up at the city prison on a charge of shooting with intent to kill, and this afternoon Officer Callan subscribed an affidavit, embodying this charge, on which he will have a preliminary hearing before Mayor Crilly.

Chief Sheridan this morning called at the home of Officer Callan, 69 South Fourth street, where he found the wounded man sitting in a chair nursing his injured arm. He was in a cheerful mood and does not anticipate any serious results from his wound. He may be said to have been really jubilant over the fact that he had not been killed, or that the bullet from Good's pistol had not shattered the bone in his arm. He detailed the circumstances of the battle with Good, to the Chief and showed him his coat which was powder burned, indicating that the bullet had been fired at very close range.

While in some respects Officer Callan is lucky, in that he has not been killed, in others he seems to be singularly unfortunate, as it has been less than a year since he was frightfully cut in the face by a knife in the hands of a desperado named Joe Thrapp, whom Callan was attempting to arrest at the old Fifth Ward polls during the progress of the Democratic primary election last spring. On that occasion as on Sunday night Callan proved himself possessed of remarkable nerve and bravery. After the entire side of his face had been laid open by the razor-edged knife, and although covered with blood, he succeeded in getting Thrapp, took him two squares and turned him over to other officers.

Thrapp is now serving a sentence in the penitentiary for this crime.

Good is a man probably 45 years of age, and has a wife and five children. His wife and he are separated, and it is understood she lives in Columbus. One son, Brooke Good, lives in Newark.

Dennis Good was this afternoon put under $1,000 bond for his appearance before Mayor Crilly Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock for preliminary hearing on charge of shooting Officer Jas. Callan with intent to kill.

AMUSEMENTS.

The martial music, the old time songs, and the spirited ensembles are among the chief elements that have made the great success of the new military comic opera "When Johnny Comes Marching Home," as presented by the Whitney opera company. Stanislaus Stange wrote the book and Julian Edwards the music, but it is the music, its original treatment, novelty and jingle quality that is responsible for the great success of the piece. It is jovial and full of cute phrases. It catches the ear and tingles there. The women in the story are all fair rebels and wear the crinoline hoop skirts of a generation ago in a manner that is altogether charming. They taught the Yankees and break out into the strains of "Dixie" on the slightest provocation. The men all wear the Northern blue in the slim-waisted bell-skirted coats and peg top trousers of the old uniform of '61-'65. There are marching troops with their foragers' and their stragglers, bugle calls, alarms, hurrahs, and apostrophes to the Nation's starry banner that all go to arouse the enthusiasm of the audiences to such a pitch that at least twice during every performance there are genuine outbursts of cheering and waving of hands. "When Johnny Comes Marching Home" will be the attraction at the Auditorium tomorrow night.

NEXT FRIDAY NIGHT.

On Friday evening, January 22, the member of Licking Aerie F. O. E., will give their big show and have succeeded in securing several professionals to assist in their production of the celebrated play, "The Danites." The Eldons, celebrated vaudeville artists, will give a specialty between acts and Miller and Lehman, acrobats, Harry Payne the sweet singer of Newark, and last, but not least by any manner of means, Arthur Connolly, a Newark boy who has just returned after a very profitable season of 20 weeks with the Waite comic opera company. Don't forget the date, Tuesday, Jan. 22.

NEXT SATURDAY NIGHT.

Keenly alive to the fact that the public at large are taking greater interest in things theatrical, and more over, discriminating as to what sort of attractions they will patronize, so Mr. Frank L. Perley intends to give them what they want. With this aim in view he has secured the services of Chas. Dalton, an actor of unqualified merit, whose success in the role of Marcus Superbus in "The Sign of the Cross" is a matter of universal knowledge, to star in the huge dramatic success, "A Gentleman of France." As "Caston de Marsac," Mr. Dalton finds himself fitted with a congenial part which gives him ample opportunities to demonstrate that as a romantic actor he has few, if any, equals.

In sword and guantlet he is the ideal "swash buckler," the hero of court chamber and the dueling field, strong and virile, yet with that captivating voice and smile that fits so well with his handsome face, he irresistibly carries his audience to heights of unthought enthusiasm. The love interest enters largely into the construction of the play, and blending it with deft lights and shades into the thrilling situation of "The light on the staircase," makes "A Gentleman of France" a play that will long be remembered.

The time of the play is that golden age of romance and poetry in France which has furnished so many happy themes to poet and novelist. The locale admits of excellent exposition of the scenic artist's craft, full advantage of which has been taken by Mr. Perley. The costumer has been allowed full play and as a result, the production is unquestionably the best Mr. Perley has done throughout his long and successful career as a manager. Needless to say, the company surrounding Mr. Dalton is composed of seasoned veterans whose good work has been a matter of favorable comment in the biggest dramatic successes of the past five years. Mr. Dalton and his supporting company in "A Gentleman of France" will be the attraction at the Auditorium next Saturday night.

GRIM REAPER

SUDDEN DEATH SUNDAY OF MR. JOHN BIERLEY.

Lifelong Resident of Newark Passes Away—Burial on Tuesday Morning—Other Deaths.

John Bierley, aged 66 years, died suddenly at 10:15 o'clock Sunday morning at his boarding house, 53 Front street. Mr. Bierley was a life long resident of Newark, where for years he was engaged in the tin business on Fourth street, opposite the Central fire department.

He appeared to be in his usual health Sunday morning and ate a hearty breakfast, and afterwards walked about the house and yard for a time. He complained of pains in the chest, and a few minutes afterward breathed his last before a physician could be summoned.

The deceased leaves three children, Mrs. F. C. Richter and Miss Mabel Bierley of Columbus, and John Bierley who is located at Birmingham, Ala. Another son, George, who was well known in Newark as a telegraph operator, left the United States for Alaska about six years ago, when the gold fever was at its height, and many adventurers into that country perished from cold and famine. This is the last known of the young man, and the family is now convinced that he is dead.

The deceased was a veteran of the Civil war, and a member of the Masonic fraternity, the latter having charge of the funeral which will take place from 53 Front street at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, Rev. J. C. Schindler conducting the services.

JNO. M'GLAUGHLIN'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of John McLaughlin took place Monday morning and burial was made at the Bell Hill cemetery north of Newark.

A BABY'S DEATH.

The six weeks' old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stevens of Newark township died Sunday. The funeral will be held Tuesday morning from the home on the Granville road.

MISS HETTIE BODINE.

Word has been received here of the death of Miss Hettie Bodine which occurred at her home in Clinton, N. J., on Friday. Miss Bodine was quite well known in Newark and especially in the vicinity of Pataskala. She was a woman about 50 years of age, and had loaned many thousands of dollars in Licking county. A number of relatives in the western part of the county survive her.

MR. BAXTER'S CHILD.

Raymond O. Baxter, aged 15 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Baxter, residing in Oakwood avenue, died Sunday of inflammation of the bowels. The funeral will be held Tuesday and burial will be in Cedar Hill cemetery. Mr. Baxter with his family, recently came to Newark from Parkersburg, W. Va.

T. B. HOLMES' FUNERAL.

The funeral of T. B. Holmes took place Sunday under the auspices of the Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias. The burial took place at Hebron.

JONATHAN HATCHER.

Zanesville, D., Jan. 18.—The venerable Jonathan Hatcher, founder of the coffin making business in Zanesville, and one of the best men that ever lived in this city, died Sunday afternoon at his home on Third avenue, Columbus, from ailments which came with his extreme age, 93 years.

Jonathan Hatcher was born in Virginia 93 years ago and came to Ohio in 1820, settling at Fultonham. Later he went to New Lexington, and in 1866 he removed from that town to Zanesville, where he established the Hatcher coffin works on the canal bank in the building now occupied by the Zanesville Mantle and Furniture factory. The funeral obsequies will occur at Columbus Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock and interment will be made in Greenlawn, beside the body of his wife.

BENJ. LACY DEAD.

Zanesville, Jan. 18.—The death of Benjamin Lacy, aged 85 years, occurred at 6 o'clock yesterday evening, at the home of the deceased's son, Frank Lacy, of Hall avenue. Death was due to infirmities.

The electrometer is so acutely sensitive that it will detect in one minute an amount of matter which must accumulate for 2,000,000 years before there is enough of it to affect the most sensitive chemical balance.

HARD STRUGGLE

Had Officer Zergiebel With a Drunken Man, But He Landed Him in the City Prison.

About two o'clock Monday afternoon Chief Sheridan received a telephone message from Officer Zergiebel at the corner of Valandigham and Second streets to go there immediately with a wagon. The chief responded as quickly as possible and found a drunken man lying in the road where he had been thrown by Officer Zergiebel after a desperate struggle. The man was put into the wagon and fought with the officers and screamed the whole way down to the city prison.

A PECULIAR CASE

Kansas City, Jan. 18.—Physicians are puzzled over the peculiar case of Mrs. Green Scott of Carthage, Mo. Mrs. Scott swallowed a needle six years ago, and it has just been extracted a few inches above her ankle. One day, while sewing, in the summer of 1897, Mrs. Scott placed a needle between her front teeth. She was suddenly called from the room, and in her haste she swallowed the needle. It frightened her for awhile, but she did not suffer any pain of inconvenience. Finally she forgot all about the occurrence. For several days past she has noticed a red spot just above her right ankle, and when she examined it carefully she saw the point of a needle plainly protruding. The needle was well preserved and was almost two inches long. As far as outward indications are concerned the woman has never suffered in consequence of her strange experience.

OLD AGE

CAUSED THE DEATH OF A YOUTH OF TWENTY-THREE.

Autopsy Revealed That Young Man Had the Vital Organs of a Man Three Score and Ten.

New York, Jan. 18.—Incased in the body of a man of 23 years old the surgeons of Lincoln hospital in this city, have found the organs of a man of four score years. The discovery is regarded as one of the most remarkable in the history of post mortem examinations, in hospital practice, and, so far as known, stands alone.

Wm. McGrath was admitted to the Lincoln Hospital about four weeks ago, suffering intense pain in the lower part of the back in the region of the kidneys.

His face was youthful in contour, his skin smooth and he did not look to be within three years of his actual age, which, on the hospital records, is put down as 23. These circumstances, in view of subsequent discoveries, are what invest the case with such a peculiar and unusual interest. McGrath's ailment was diagnosed as acute nephritis—inflammation of the kidneys. Although he received the most skillful medical attention and careful nursing he sank gradually to death.

An autopsy was performed in the presence of three of the hospital staff. The doctors were somewhat amazed to find the kidneys shriveled and contracted just as they would be in a man of 70 or thereabouts. There was still further amazement when the dissectors found in this young man's body an enlarged liver, such as belonged to a nonagenarian and not to a boy. Further exploration disclosed a heart grown to a size out of all proportion. It was pronounced to be like the heart of a man at least 75 years old, accustomed all his life to a hard day's work. The patient never put in a hard day's work in his life. Then, to carry out the deception to its ultimate, nature presented another and a stranger abnormality in the hardening of the arteries. These had lost all their flexibility. The arterial stream had flowed through them with the sluggishness of old age, and not with the bounding life of youth.

It is considered altogether outside the history of anatomical research to discover all these evidences of extreme old age in the one human organism. How it came about, and why it did not affect his outward appearance, is the puzzling part of the phenomenon. Only a meager history of the patient's previous condition was obtained when he was admitted for treatment, but so far as known his habits were good, and he was not given to alcoholic excesses. So without any known cause he died of old age when he was 23 years old.

"It was almost a miracle. Burdock Flood Bitters cured me of a terrible breaking out all over the body. I am very grateful." Miss Julia Filbridge, West Cornwall, Conn.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

Mr. Hall Will Help Make It So for Every Man, Woman and Child in Newark.

Health and strength means happiness. If you are not strong and healthy you cannot be happy—you need Vinol. We ask you to take our word for it—there is absolutely nothing known to medicine that will purify and enrich the blood, build up health and strength for every organ in the body like Vinol; simply because Vinol contains in a concentrated form all of the vital principles found in cod liver oil, without a drop of the nauseating oil; and it is nature's grandest remedy for weakness and disease.

Vinol contains no poisonous drugs, and it is not a patent medicine. It is now recognized throughout the world as the greatest strength creator for old people, weak, sickly women and children, nursing mothers and after a severe sickness.

Vinol cures hacking coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Vinol is unequalled to create an appetite, to build up those who are run down, and make those who are too thin fat, rosy and healthy.

C. F. Derby of Bangor, Me., writes: "Vinol is the best general tonic and body strengthener I have ever found; my family all take it, and I have only the strongest words of praise to say regarding it."

Mr. J. B. Keener, deputy clerk of the superior court, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "Vinol is the ideal preparation of cod liver oil; it purifies and enriches the blood, induces a good appetite, promotes digestion and invigorates every organ of the body."

We could quote from thousands of such unsolicited testimonials, but we ask every person in Newark to take our word that Vinol is all we claim for it; if it fails we will refund your money without question. Frank D. Hall, Druggist.

A Sleighting Party.

About fifty young people in response to invitations, took advantage of the fine sleighing Friday evening and went to the home of Mrs. Anthony Hunter, about six and one half miles south east of Newark. The evening was pleasantly spent in the playing of games of various kinds and in music and dancing. Those comprising the jolly crowd were the following: The Misses Ada Irwin, Runie Crook's, Ethel Crooks, Bessie Morgan, Flossie Farr, Grace Loughman, Ethel Vermilion, Irene Vermilion, May Shaw, Miss Kreeger, Miss Lee, Miss Roberts, Zola Vermilion, Bertha Minor, Mary Pickett, Eva Pickett, Mrs. Calvin Williams, Mrs. Mantie Hartshorn, and Messrs. FR. HARTLEY
MAY NOT BECOME THE BISHOP OF COLUMBUS.
Delay in Arrival of Pope's Bull Leads to the Belief That Another Man May Win.

Columbus, O., Jan. 18.—From inner clerical sources it has been learned that, after all, Bishop-elect John J. Hartley of Steubenville, will probably never occupy the Bishopric of Columbus. Father Hartley's name was sent in by the Propaganda to the Pope shortly before Christmas, and although it was reported that Pius X. ratified his appointment to the vacant See of Columbus, the official bulls have not yet reached this country. They should have arrived at least a week ago.

This delay is due, so those in authority state, to the fight that has been made and is still being waged by the priests of the Columbus Diocese against Father Hartley's appointment. It is now an open secret that the keenest disappointment was felt on all sides when his recommendation was announced, and that the Apostolic Delegate, Mr. Falconio, forbade the local Catholic organ to make any comment upon his selection.

The priests of this diocese, and by far the big majority of the laity are anxious for the appointment of Rev. M. M. Meara, the present rector of St. Joseph's Cathedral, in this city. In fact, he was the choice at the time that Bishop Moeller was sent here from Cincinnati to succeed the late Bishop Watterson. Father Meara's name was at the head of the priests' list when their candidates were sent to Rome last summer. He did not occupy any place on the Bishops' list, however, and much disappointment was felt here when this became known. Rev. Wm. Fletcher, D. D., the rector of Cardinal Gibbons' Cathedral, in Baltimore, headed the Bishops' list, with Father Hartley second. Father Hartley occupied no place on the priests' list.

This naturally led to a contest between Dr. Fletcher and Father Meara. The former had the Bishops and Father Meara the support of the priests. The latter began to send protests to Rome against Dr. Fletcher and asked the appointment of their candidate and recommended upon a compromise candidate and recommended Rev. J. J. Hartley of Steubenville, for the position. The priests of the diocese here did not look for such a move, and it came to them as a surprise. When they recovered they immediately began to petition Rome against Father Hartley's appointment, and, although the Pope ratified the Propaganda's selection, they have succeeded in preventing the bulls from being issued.

There is no personal animosity in this against Father Hartley, but the priests do not view him as the best man for the position. Father Hartley, it is said, does not even desire the elevation, and never sought the honor. He is said to be anxious to continue in his present capacity.

An outcome of this contest has been that the Pope has taken away from the Propaganda the power of appointing Bishops or recommending them, and will hereafter personally select the candidates.

A strong effort is being continued to secure a reversal of the appointment, and the fact that the official bulls have been delayed so long has given the local priests hope that the Pope will reconsider the matter. Father Meara's candidacy is being strongly urged again; but those who are close feel almost certain that, in the event of Father Hartley's withdrawal Dr. Fletcher of Baltimore, will receive the appointment. Some of the papers announced that Dr. Fletcher would likely be the new Bishop of Columbus shortly after Cardinal Gibbons' visit to Cincinnati three months ago.

PROMISES

Of Support from Members of the Legislature Claimed by W. C. T. U. Secretary.

Bellevue, O., Jan. 18.—Miss Oliva Thomas, state secretary of the Women's Christian Temperance Union Saturday made the assertion that the promise of enough members of the Legislature had been secured to insure the passage of the ward local option bill, and that petitions urging the Legislature to grant women the franchise to vote at local option elections were being largely signed throughout the state and would be presented to the Legislature about February 1.

Chief Paralyzed.

Columbus, Jan. 18.—Captain Russell, the newly appointed chief of police of Columbus, was stricken with apoplexy at his home at 2 o'clock this afternoon. His right side is paralyzed and condition critical.

Findlay Fire.

Findlay, O., Jan. 18.—About noon today the Turner opera house burst into flames. It will probably be a total loss. Cost $50,000. It is surrounded by fine buildings which are threatened with destruction.

PROBABLY A DRY HOLE.

Johnstown, O., Jan. 18.—The drillers who have been drilling the well for the Johnstown Gas and Oil company, drilled into the sand this morning and have penetrated it for some distance. The indications, however are that it is a dry well, although the drillers are still pushing the drill. The stockholders of the company will probably hold a meeting on Friday to determine whether or not they will drill another well.

LIEUT. VAN DUSEN

Who Had Charge of the Regular Army Hospital Here Last August Goes to West Point.

Columbus, O., Jan. 18.—Dr. J. W. Van Dusen, first lieutenant U. S. A., for the past two years first assistant surgeon at the Columbus barracks, has been ordered to report at West Point, N. Y., January 20, where he will serve as surgeon.

Lieutenant Van Dusen served in Cuba and the Philippines and during the army maneuvers in Kentucky last fall was injured by being thrown from a horse. Since that time he has been on sick leave.

BRICKELL'S NAME DOWN.

Columbus, Jan. 18.—The name of W. D. Brickell has been taken down from the Dispatch masthead. Mr. Brickell objected to an editorial which former Congressman Gill who owns the controlling interest in the paper wanted printed, and Mr. Brickell demanded that his name be taken from the editorial page.

INSANE FROM NOVEL READING.

Findlay, O., Jan. 18.—Rose Smith of this city became violently insane, the result of reading a novel. The title of the book was "The Eye of Terror," and the young lady imagined herself to be one of the leading characters. When she had nearly completed the story she fell from her chair to the floor, screaming frantically that she saw "the eye."

ASSAULTED NON-UNION MAN

Crestline, O., Jan. 18.—Paul Ricks, a molder, aged 50 years, came here from Erie, Pa., to accept a position with the Schill Bros. company, and early Saturday morning was murderously assaulted by union molders, who were recently let out of the factory.

All the men who started to work under the "open shop" rule have been threatened by the union men, who refuse to leave town, and serious trouble is feared.

FIRE AT A REVIVAL.

Bowling Green, O., Jan. 18.—During a revival service of Dogtown church, near Hoytville in this county, a cluster of kerosene lamps fell and exploded, blazing oil was scattered over the congregation, which, panic-stricken, rushed out of the edifice. Miraculously a few slight injuries were the only casualties. The fire was put out before much damage was done.

STRICKEN

With Paralysis Was the Star Witness in the Ducomb Divorce Case at Ashland.

Ashland, O., Jan. 18.—A divorce case that is attracting considerable attention is being heard in the Common Pleas court. The principals are Postmaster C. G. Ducomb and wife. Mr. Ducomb filed a petition for divorce October 19, 1903, charging his wife with neglect of her marital duties. Mrs. Ducomb filed her answer and cross-petition December 15, 1903, charging her husband with intemperance, infidelity and abuse. Mr. Ducomb was appointed Postmaster under President McKinley's administration. Prior to that time he had been a pre-scription clerk for 12 years. He has been prominent in county politics for the past 15 years.

Mrs. Ducomb prior to her marriage taught school for ten years. Both are widely known and the trial has caused unusual interest. The trial was adjourned Saturday until today. Mrs. Ducomb's father was stricken with paralysis Sunday. He is said to be one of her star witnesses.

FIRST TIME

In Years Plant Was Without Night Watchman, and on This Night Fire Broke Out.

Zanesville, Jan. 18.—Early this morning fire did $1000 damage to the dry house of the Zanesville furniture company. When the firemen reached the scene it was some little time before water could be thrown on the blaze because of the frozen plugs. President E. D. Gary, of the company, said that for the first time in many years the plant was last night without a watchman, his night watchman, William Flowers, having been quarantined for smallpox, and no one having been secured to take his place. The loss is covered by insurance.

SOCIETY IS PROSPEROUS.

Urbana, O., Jan. 18.—The Campaign County Agricultural society organized by re-electing the same board of managers. The report of the treasurer shows over $2000 in the treasury, with all bills paid. Eighteen years ago the society had just $240.

HUSBAND WANTS DIVORCE

Marysville, O., Jan. 18.—Douglass Sherwood, a well known citizen of Plain City, filed a suit for divorce here against his wife, Malinda E. Sherwood on the grounds of desertion and infidelity. The couple were married at Plain City on April 10, 1880, and have two children.

E. B. DENNIS
IS ELECTED CASHIER OF PEOPLES NATIONAL BANK.

Former Newark Lawyer and For 11 Years With the Green-Joyce Co. to Return to Newark.

The Peoples National Bank directors organized Saturday evening by electing the following officers: President, Benjamin Franklin. Vice Pres., E. M. Baugher. Cashier, Edson B. Dennis. Assistant, Channing M. Thompson. Mr. Dennis, the new cashier, is a son of the late Joel M. Dennis, and for many years lived in Newark. He practiced law in this city for a time, and then went to Columbus, where for 11 years he has been credit man for the Green-Joyce company, one of the largest wholesale dry goods and notions jobbers in the country.

Mr. Dennis has filled a position of great responsibility with this well known Columbus firm for eleven years but like every other Newark man who has located in another city he has for years had a desire to again take up his residence in this city and when an offer of the cashiership of the Peoples Bank was made Mr. Dennis accepted it. He will come to Newark and begin his new duties as soon as he can arrange his business affairs in Columbus.

In this connection the following letter from the President of the Green-Joyce company will be read with interest:

Columbus, O., Jan. 16, 1904. Mr. Benjamin Franklin, President Peoples National Bank, Newark, O.: Dear Sir—It is with pleasure and at the same time regret I write this letter. Pleasure in recommending to your full confidence our Mr. Edson B. Dennis, and regret that he is leaving our house, for I assure you, we have never had anyone with us with whom we so much regretted to part. He is affable, careful and of decided ability, and I believe perfectly honest and reliable in all his business relations and therefore recommend him to any position of trust and confidence in which he may be placed.

The foregoing is based on eleven years experience with Mr. Dennis in one of the most exacting positions in our house. Very respectfully yours, JOHN JOYCE, President.

Mr. Dennis will receive a warm welcome from hundreds of personal friends when he comes back to his old home to enter upon the duties of cashier at the Peoples Bank.

INTERURBAN

Line from Newark May Have Headquarters in Outlet Building, but the Matter is Not Settled.

Zanesville, O., Jan. 18.—"If we can come to terms with the interurban people that company and our lines may occupy one waiting room and office," said Superintendent Gibbs when asked about the possibility of the two above companies joining interests in the property at the corner of Main and Sixth streets, which the local street railway company has leased.

It is known as the Black property, and at present is occupied by the Outlet Clothing company, which company will remain there until the first of March. The upper floors of the building will probably be devoted to the company's offices, etc., although these plans as yet are not matured.

Continuing Mr. Gibbs stated that such an arrangement would be an ideal one but he had doubts as to whether the interurban company would agree to it.

Another change which is said to be under consideration is the purchase of the old Union foundry buildings, between Seventh and Underwood streets, for use as car barns thus locating the barns near the center of the city and so facilitating arrangements for putting cars onto all the lines in shortertime. This is not official, however.

ADDRESS

BY DR. DUVALL AT Y. M. C. A. HALL ON SUNDAY

Was One of Best Heard Here—Next Sunday "Does The Moral Man Need Religion?"

As predicted in Saturday's paper the men's meeting in Taylor hall Sunday was one of the largest and best held this year. The Shepardson Ladies' Quartet (Cross Sisters) introduced the service with four musical numbers. The quality of their singing is hard to define, their voices blend so perfectly and the sentiment of their songs is so clearly and so feelingly expressed. It is just the kind of music adapted to a gospel meeting. It is to be hoped that they can be secured again.

Dr. Duvall in his characteristic, philosophic manner of thinking, led his hearers into a clearer conception of the meaning of conversion.

Three elements, from the human side, enter into this all important experience of the religious life.

1. A clearly defined ideal or standard of living conceived by the individual as being the life which he should live. This ideal may be higher or lower, complete or incomplete, with different individuals, depending upon the extent of their enlightenment. But in every case it is the highest of which the individual is capable of conceiving at the time.
2. A willingness, a determination to choose, once for all, to make that ideal a reality in one's life. Accepting by chance of will to make that ideal the program to which all the future acts of one's life shall be subservient. This Dr. Duvall calls "Making a Life Choice." Henceforth, every minor questions that come up for decision are decided in reference to that supreme choice, to live as God would have one live.
3. The third element is the feeling of joy, peace and happiness which accompanies or rather follows the making of his "life choice." The consciousness that one has at least come into harmony with the supreme will. The intensity of this emotion depends entirely upon the disposition of the individual. With some it is a quiet experience, with other an outburst of exultation.

At the close of Dr. Duvall's address the meeting was thrown open for questions. A number of interesting questions were raised by those present, and very satisfactorily answered by Dr. Duvall.

Next Sunday he will discuss the question, "Does The Moral Man Need Religion?"

Little Girl Bitten by a Dog.
The little daughter of Mr. John Untermeyer of German street, was bitten by a dog, her left arm being badly lacerated Saturday. The child ran to her home with the blood streaming from the wound. All precautions have been taken and it is hoped no serious consequences will follow.

HOLY NAME
Society Organized at St. Francis de Sales Church—Address by Rev. Father Rheinhardt.

An unusually large and attentive congregation assembled in St. Francis de Sales church on Sunday evening to hear Rev. Father Albert Rheinhardt preach one of his great discourses. The Rev. Father's subject was "The History and Power of the Holy Name of Jesus," which he handled in a truly able and eloquent manner. At the conclusion of the sermon, which commanded the closest attention of the large congregation, over one hundred men joined the Holy Name Society, whose object is a purely spiritual one, having for its chief end reverence for the Holy Name, and the suppression of blasphemy and profane language of all kinds. The members of the Holy Name Society will hold regular meetings every month and every two months they will go in a body to Holy Communion. There will be a meeting of the society on next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock at which time the officers will be elected for the ensuing term.

By way of illustrating the effect of roverty on infant mortality a German statistician says that among the aristocratic circles in Berlin only 57 per cent of the children die before they reach the age of 5, whereas among the poorest classes the number of doomed children is 277 per 1,000.

MR. WULFHOOPE
Missed Calculation and Fell a Few Inches, Fracturing Right Hip at Clinton Street Home.

Mr. Henry Wulfhoope, aged 77 years, one of Newark's oldest and best known citizens while playing with his little grandchildren at his home, 45 Clinton street, on Saturday evening, slipped to sit down on a lounge and missed his seat, falling on his right side and sustaining a fracture of the right hip. The members rushed to his assistance and found that he was unable to arise, and that they were unable to get him from the floor. His son William was telephoned for, and with the assistance of the attending surgeon, succeeded in getting him to bed, and his injuries were attended to.

At this writing he is resting as comfortably as can be expected, but owing to his advanced age the result will be in doubt for some weeks.

DISHER-LINK.
George Walter Disher of Martinsburg, W. Va., and Miss Laura Link of St. Louis, Mo., were married here on Monday. The ceremony took place at the Hotel Ludlow about 10:30 o'clock, and was performed by Squire T. L. King. The newly wedded couple left on B. & O. train 104 for their home in West Virginia.

PREVENTED PNEUMONIA

E. M. Clifford of Buffalo Tells of His Cure by Father John's Medicine.

Mr. Edward Clifford of 134 Sandusky street, Buffalo, N. Y., writes: For the benefit of others I most cheerfully recommend Father John's Medicine as a body builder and cure to any person troubled with colds or coughs. I was troubled with a bad cold and was threatened with pneumonia. After the first bottle I found myself much improved and after the third bottle I was entirely rid of the cough and soon began to gain in strength and flesh. You are entirely welcome to use my name. I will be ready at any moment to recommend your medicine to any person. (Signed) Edward M. Clifford. Cures colds or money back. No alcohol or weakening stimulants. Sold in Newark by J. W. Collins & Son.
